Origen Technologies Export Controls

Information on the export control status of Origen Technologies products.

Many Origen Technologies products are subject to U.S. export and trade regulations, including the U.S. Department of Commerce's, Bureau of Industry and Security's Export Administration Regulations (EAR), and the Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Controls' various trade and economic sanctions regulations (OFAC regulations).

Through your use or download of Origen Technologies' products, or third-party products available on Origen Technologies sites, you are agreeing to comply with all applicable export and re-export (shipment from one foreign (non-U.S.) country to another foreign country) control laws and regulations

Origen Technologies customers, partners and users of the products cannot -- directly or indirectly -- sell, export, re-export, ship, transfer, or divert, any products, software, or technology (including products derived from or based on such technology) received from Origen Technologies in violation of these laws. If prior authorization is required, you may apply for the required governmental authorization by submitting a license application to the applicable government agency.

The EAR is available at <https://www.bis.doc.gov/index.php/regulations/export-administration-regulations-ear> and the OFAC regulations are available at <https://www.treasury.gov/about/organizational-structure/offices/Pages/Office-of-Foreign-Assets-Control.aspx>.

No Origen Technologies products, or third-party products available on Origen Technologies sites, can be sold, exported, re-exported, shipped, diverted or otherwise transferred (collectively "transferred") without the required government license to an individual or entity located in an embargoed country or on any applicable government sanctions lists, including the U.S. Treasury Department's list of Specially Designated Nationals, or on the U.S. Commerce Department's Denied Persons List or Entity List (see Commerce Lists to Check) Further, no Origen Technologies products, or third-party products available on Origen Technologies sites may be used for any chemical or biological weapons, sensitive nuclear end-uses, or missile related end-uses or other prohibited end-uses without the required license from the applicable U.S. Government agency.

As stated above, without limitation, parties acquiring or using any Origen Technologies product are responsible for obtaining all required licenses or other approvals necessary for the transfer of Origen Technologies products, or third-party products available on Origen Technologies sites. Further, you certify that you are not in an embargoed country or on any applicable government sanctions lists.
