

The Origen Tech News

New customers cost 5 times more than keeping current customers

By keeping the CRM with all latest information, we can guarantee:

- Decision-making more effective based on accurate information
- Better customer experience
- Improvements on customer experience
- Better team collaboration

We count on everyone's commitment to review and update the CRM regularly, ensuring that we are always working with accurate and relevant information.

So let's keep our data up-to-date and care for our greatest asset?

We have a new office in Brazil!

Since June 1st, we are in new house and best of all, in the same SAP building. Nothing better than being close to our main partner.

Important: In order to use the office, you must make an appointment in advance. Reservations by email luciana.kamihara@origentech.com.
